PREPARING FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Reduce Stress of the Upcoming Holiday Season

The holiday season is fast approaching. Make sure your pharmacy is prepared!

Propel Rx, PharmaClik Rx and Propel POS have a variety of features and tools available for your store to better prepare for the holiday. Generate reports to identify your fast movers and predict your pharmacy needs for the upcoming holiday season.

Drug Movement Report

Predict Your Fast Movers for the Holiday Season

Use the data that you have available to you by using the Drug Movement Report! This report provides data for all prescriptions dispensed during a report period.

To see the top drugs your pharmacy dispensed during that time frame, generate the Drug Movement Report for December 2021. This will help to better predict which drugs may be required for the holiday season this year.

- 1 Set the Start Date and End Date.
- 2 Enter the Maximum # of Drugs To Include.
- 3 Select Preview prior to printing to sort the data.

Ordering On Demand

Easily Add Inventory to Your Next Order

Once your fast movers from last year have been identified, it's time to order additional inventory of those drugs from the Drug Folder. Ordering additional inventory in anticipation of the increased need during the holiday season is an effective way to manage supply and demand.

There is no need to adjust your re-ordering points. You can easily add additional inventory to your next order.

Use the Order button to place on demand orders for items that haven't fallen below their re-ordering points.

Top Selling Items Report

Prepare Your Pharmacy OTC Stock for the Holiday Season

To ensure you have enough OTC stock during the holiday season, use the Top Selling Items Report. The Top Selling Items Report provides information about the best-selling items in the store.

The Top Selling Items Report is found in the Report Builder.

It is best practice to print this report by Selected Finelines.

This narrows the top selling items for certain finelines.
