

Clinical Notes

Date: Jun 17, 2021

Name: Johnson, Samantha
Gender: Female
Date of Birth: Aug 09, 1965
Address: 24 Sussex Dr.
Ottawa, Ontario, K1M 1M4

PHN: 1231231234
Phone #: (647) 123-1234
Email: sjohnsonsussex@email.com
Description: Patient has been experiencing nausea with their increased dose of Paxil.

Pharmacist Name: Smith, John
License #: 027
Entry Date: Jun 17, 2021
Service Level: Standard Intervention
Service Duration: 6 to 15 minutes
Patient Follow-up: Jun 24, 2021

Clinical Information

Allergy	Reaction	Condition	Severity
PENICILLIN V	Rash

Prescription/Drug Information

Rx#:	Fill Date:	TP Bill:
Drug Name:	Strength:	DIN:

Data

Signs:
Symptoms: Nausea
Comments: Patient take the medication before bed and experiences nausea in the morning.

Assessment

Therapy: Appropriate/Safe
Comments: Nausea is a common side effect with increased dosage.

Plan

Treatment: Altered, but continued use of the medication.
Monitor: <input type="checkbox"/> Effectiveness <input type="checkbox"/> Allergic Reaction <input type="checkbox"/> Adherence <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Side Effects
Comments: Advised the patient to alternate their dosing every day between the new dose and the old dose for the next week. If nausea continues, revert back to previous dosage and contact prescriber.